Dear Parents

It has been a busy week, and next week looks equally full!

Greenfinch class showed some real singing talent in the assembly yesterday, such good behaviour and loud voices, well done everyone. Our Year 6s have been superb with their attitude towards their SATs tests, nothing other than determination and confidence shown by them all, we are looking forward to hearing of their successes in July.

The Year 6s are having a well deserved break and are out at the Chalk Pits this morning, Sparrow class have gone to the museum of archaeology and anthropology and Greenfinches are enjoying a trip to the Botanic Gardens.

Ice Cream Factory

It is the children's favourite lunchtime on Thursday, make sure you are ready for them to come home with that extra bounce of energy thanks to all the bubblegum sauce and smarties on their ice cream!

Book Fair

As you will know from the leaflets that came out on Tuesday, we have the book fair in school next week. Please do come along to the small hall after school to see what is on offer.

Lost Property

After long discussions amongst the School Council they have decided to change how we deal with lost property. The bin is no more! We now have an easy to search cupboard that all unnamed lost property is placed in. This is located in the shared space outside the small hall, please feel free to head in to check for any lost items.
